

Financial Assistance for Members from Low/Middle Income Countries

The International Society for Burn Injuries (ISBI) will offer financial assistance for registration, and in certain cases hotel accommodation to a limited number of delegates attending the 2024 ISBI/BBA Congress.

Those ISBI members wishing to apply for financial assistance must meet the following criteria:

- Must have maintained active membership for the year 2023 and have paid their dues for year 2024
- Must be from Low/Middle income country as defined by the current ISBI dues structure
- Must submit requests for financial assistance by 30 May 2024

Financial Assistance will be awarded based on:

- Membership seniority
- Abstract acceptance for oral/poster presentation at the 2024 congress
- Speaker during Pre-Congress courses or symposia at the 2024 congress

Delegates must indicate clearance to participate in the congress by 30 May 2024 to take advantage of the early bird rates so that the ISBI will be able to accommodate a larger number of delegates. There will still be time to register at the early bird rate after abstracts acceptance notices have been sent out.

ISBI will reimburse a delegate's registration fees (registration receipt required) and hotel accommodation once a delegate has produced a purchased flight itinerary to Birmingham, UK (please provide a copy of your paid flight itinerary receipt to info@worldburn.org). Please note that due to limited funds availability, delegates may have to share hotel rooms.

If you are unable to attend the congress after you have applied for financial assistance, please notify us at info@worldburn.org so that we can accommodate other applicants. Please note that funds for financial assistance are limited and applications will be accepted based on the above stated criteria and on a "first come first serve" basis until all funds are exhausted.

When submitting your request, please include the following information:

- ISBI Membership Number
- Full Name
- Title
- Country of residence
- Email address for notification purposes

Please complete the Financial Assistance Application and submit by email to info@worldburn.org by 30 May 2024.
