

Professor Aikawa Young Investigator Prize

Purpose

The Prize was established to promote the activities of the International Society for Burn Injuries (ISBI) by encouraging and motivating young ISBI members from developing countries to conduct research on clinical problems and prevention of burns.

The Award

A total of six investigators will be awarded:

Gold Prize, Physician Category
Silver Prize, Physician Category
The Bronze Prize, Physician Category

Gold Prize, Non-Physician Category
Silver Prize, Non-Physician Category
Bronze Prize, Non-Physician Category

 Physician submissions must be for oral presentations. Non physician submissions may be either oral or poster submissions.

Eligibility

1. Applicant must be an active ISBI member (current with their membership dues) from developing countries as defined by the ISBI dues category of “low” income areas.
2. Applicant must be under the age of 40 years on the opening day of the biennial ISBI Congress.
3. Applicant must be the first author of the paper presented during the biennial ISBI Congress when Prize is given.

Application

The applicant must specify the desire to be considered for this award by indicating so online while submitting their abstract. The applicant must also send a notification of abstract submission including abstract title, any Conflict of Interest including grants, paid travel expenses and registration fees, and a copy of their Curriculum Vitae (CV). All required documents can be sent either by email to serghiou62@gmail.com or by mail to: ISB (International Society for Burn Injuries), PO BOX 2042, League City, Texas 77574-2042. All documents must be received by June 1, 2022.

Selection

Accepted abstracts will be assigned to a designated session so that the session moderator(s) can evaluate the presentations. If a second session is deemed necessary due to a large number of accepted abstracts, the second session will be scheduled by the Program Committee Chair. Final prize recipients will be decided by an appropriate ISBI panel of experts.

Prizes that include a certificate and a monetary award will be awarded during the General Assembly.

If you need more information or further assistance, please contact Michael Serghiou, ISBI Interim Executive Director at serghiou62@gmail.com